

Museum as Megaphone: Virtual Programs at the Missoula Art Museum

Fall 2020

How can the Missoula Art Museum help me integrate visual art into my child or student's education?

MAM is dedicated to supporting teachers, caretakers, and parents during this unique and difficult school year. Regardless of your school's plan, we have a virtual course that fits your needs. All of the courses meet the Montana state standards in visual art, Social Studies, and English/ Language Arts. Additionally, most of the courses also meet the Montana Indian Education for All (IEFA) Essential Understandings standards.

Each course is self-paced and is not timed. The modules can be completed as a class or assigned as independent work. Special thank you to Inspired Classroom, a Missoula-based tech education company, for their support in the creation of this platform!

We have created these programs to mirror the experience of coming into the museum galleries as closely as possible. This includes video tours, artmaking instructions for projects, resource lists, and more. In this document you will find links to tutorials, recorded webinars and instructional sheets to help you prepare for the school year.

The 2020–2021 programs will spotlight the following exhibitions at MAM:

- Love Letters to the Collection
- Kristi Hager: Equal: A Work in Progress
- Doug Turman: Curious
- Witness to Wartime: Takuichi Fujii

What's next?

I want to access the Missoula Art Museum's online resources for my family or my classroom. How do I get registered for Museum as Megaphone?

Read the instructions or watch the tutorial. Email us if you have questions.

How can I learn more about the different courses available?

Follow the links below:

Love Letters to the Collection – available now!

3rd grade and up

Watch the tutorial here! Then watch a mini workshop led by Jenny Bevill, which was featured in the Humanities Montana newsletter.

Witness to Wartime – available now!

6th through 12th grade

Watch a free webinar called MAM as Teacher Resource for Arts Integration featuring Witness to Wartime: Takuichi Fujii.

Coming soon:

Virtual Fifth Grade Art Experience (FGAE) – Available October 1

5th grade (can also be applied to 4th and 6th grades)

Though the museum is open to the public, FGAE will be a completely virtual program this year. MAM is dedicated to continuing this tradition in collaboration with the Missoula County Public Library and Missoula County Public Schools. Thank you to the Art Associates of Missoula for their continued support for this program! Learn more about FGAE.